Module 3. Fan loyalty – Building vertical relationships

Module 4. Financial benefits from fans – How growing fandom grows the business

Justification

Football is arguably the most popular and one of the most developed sports worldwide, while being recognised, not only for its popularity, but also for its significant development as a thriving business sector. Within it, women's football has demonstrated a momentous and unprecedented growth around the globe, attracting the interest of fans, sponsors, policymakers, the media and investors. Nowadays, women's football is appreciated for its importance and potential as a business, which, combined with the multiplication of opportunities for its further growth, allows us to expect for a similar and impressive trajectory to continue.

In this certificate, we offer a broad and thorough examination of the development and the current state of women's football business, as well as an analysis of its potential for future growth driven by its increasing fandom and business potential that is being observed.

Professionals working or aiming to work within football clubs, sport governing bodies, sponsors, the media and marketing or commercial agencies undertaking this certificate, can learn how to better appreciate the business of women's football, in order to further develop and capitalise on the opportunities that can help it grow.
